

The Easley Messenger.

LOCAL AND COUNTY MATTER.

—Read the new advertisements.

—The cotton is being brought to market.

—Next Monday is Salesday in Pickens.

—October rolls around with the mercury high.

—Rev. James Arial is on a visit to his father.

—Dr. Smith paid a visit to his brother, Mr. M. J. Smith this week.

—Our run of job work is a big one. Come on with it.

—Lookout for the new advertisement of Hudgens & Hudgens next week.

—Cotton is bringing about 8½ at the best.

—Gov. B. F. Perry will speak at Pendleton at the Stock show.

—Tobacco and Cigars cheap at Ownbey Bros. Sept. 26 tf

—One of our young men has quit crossing the roads so often. He must be "solid."

—Dr. J. W. Quillian, who has been quite sick, is able to take a trip to Georgia, and left us on Wednesday.

—We are glad to be able to report the condition of Mrs. Hester as improved. May she soon be up again.

—Mr. W. J. Pickle requests us to state that he has ten fine shoats for sale, which are six months old.

—It is reported that our efficient County Clerk has "another young lady boarder at his house."

—Miss Olivia Roberts has been employed by Prof. Moore, as assistant in his increasingly prosperous school.

—A Job Lot of Crockery cheap at Ownbey Bros. Sept. 26 tf

—Miss Smith, a sister of Mr. Barnett Smith, who lives near Pickens, died on Saturday the 20th instant., and was buried at Zion.

—Mr. Joseph Wyatt, one of our former citizens, has removed to town and can be found in the store of Robinson & Wyatt.

—Mr. George Merideth loves Easley, or something therein. We are glad to have you with us.

—Mr. J. M. Philips has completed that elegant plow of his, and by calling at his shop you will have an opportunity of examining it.

—Rev. S. P. H. Elwell and son are with us on a visit. Mr. Elwell made a splendid talk in the Methodist Church on Wednesday night.

—We hear it rumored that Maj. Louis R. Redmond is to move to Easley and open a shoe shop with Mr. W. H. Whitehead.

—Ownbey Bros., can sell you a plug of Tobacco for 5 cents. Sept 26-tf.

—It is not long until the 4th of November. Voter have you your registration certificate? If not, see our very clever Supervisor of Registration, Mr. W. A. Clyde and get your certificate.

GIN NOTICE.—Higgins & Ownbey Bros., will gin your cotton for the 20th at the Higgins & Mauldin Old Stand. Satisfaction guaranteed. Bagging and Ties cheap as the cheapest. Give us a call. Sept 26-tf.

—Listen. No news-paper fib. Mr. Thomas Hinton planted one pea which grew up and produced 1600. Hadn't our people better turn their attention to pea raising.

—Mr. Elisha Laurence, who lives near Central, told us that his son had killed seventeen rattlesnakes. That's a snake story, but a true one. The mother with her offspring met with a sad fate.

—Miss Eula Brown, of Atlanta, who for so long a time lent life to Easley, gracing its society, left us on Saturday morning last. May her presence with us be realized again, and not in the very dim, distant future.

12 Hidden-name Cards and a Fine Card Case for 20 Cents. sep 26 tf T. K. & V. E. HUDGENS.

—Mrs. Emma Knight paid a visit to her parents and other relatives at Union, last week, and returned home on Wednesday morning.

—We are certain to have a new Drug store in Easley soon, as the location has been decided upon.

—Ice cold Soda Water at Ownbey Bros. Sept. 26 tf

—The South Carolina Presbytery will be held at Liberty, commencing on Saturday next. The retiring Moderator, Rev. C. H. Fennell will preach at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

—Remember that when you stand in need of having work done in the blacksmith line, that Mr. J. M. Philips, the first class workman at this place, will do it for you promptly and upon cheap terms. He is facilitated to the work in a manner that will keep pace with his high talent.

—Mr. J. T. Anthony called in to see us on Monday. He had taken a trip through Anderson and Abbeville counties. He visited the home of Col. D. Wyatt Aiken while he was gone and sold him too fine mules.

Mr. Anthony tells us that he has an average crop. So he is all right for another year. He will make about or nearly so, a bale of cotton to the acre and on some of his bottom land, he will make 50 bushels of corn to the acre. That's the way to farm.

—Wanted, (10,000) Ten Thousand bushels of Cotton Seed. Will pay the highest market price in cash. sept 26-tf. Ownbey Bros.

—Let everybody send us their job work. When we enlarge our paper, which will be soon, we do not propose to abandon our job department. Don't forget this, but come on with your orders. Letter heads, envelopes, circulars, official papers, &c., we will print for you.

—Mr. Chapman, the Section Master on the Air Line Road at Easley, with his corps of workmen, have been doing a splendid job on the road this week, in the construction of a wide crossing at the depot. Our town continues to improve and Mr. Chapman is the man to help us out.

WANTED! WANTED!! WANTED!!!—Everybody who is indebted to A. M. Runion to come forward and settle their accounts. Having indulged you all, now I hope you will return the favor by paying up as soon as possible.

Soliciting your further patronage, I am very respectfully,
Oct 3 2t, A. M. RUNION.

—Mr. J. M. Rampey, the well known merchant of our town, with his excellent wife, returned last week to their home, after making pleasant journeys to Abbeville and Charleston. Mr. Rampey looks well by his trip, which he was right in taking, because he confines himself so strictly to his business.

—While in Greenville the other day we visited the new Store of Mr. Minnaugh, Main street, nearly opposite the National Bank, and there beheld one of the finest and prettiest stocks of goods that we ever saw brought to Greenville. Behind the counter we found our young friend, Beauregard Howell, who is just at home when dealing in dry goods. Look out for their new advertisement next week.

—Ownbey Bros., will pay you spot cash for your seed cotton. Sept 26-tf

—We saw a young man on the train last week that was making his way back to 'Greenville,' from the home of his ———. When inquiring we found that this was not the young man that met with such a sad accident in Seneca a few weeks ago, when the train was about to carry him beyond the spot 'he loved so well,' and our friend asks us to make the correction. With regard to the 'poor unfortunate,' we will add that if he should go upon what we would call the wrong mission we hope he will tear both the knees of his trousers.

—Mr. Wm. C. McFall, a brother of Mr. W. T. McFall, of Pickens, died at the home of the latter on Sunday last. For some years Mr. McFall had been living in Texas. His health failed him there and not long since he returned to Carolina, where he died with consumption. His remains were carried to Anderson on Monday, where a delegation of his war comrades met them and carried them to the home of his sister, Mrs. Jane Hubbard. They were subsequently interred in the Baptist Cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. S. Murray.

—Farmers, carry your Cotton to Higgins & Ownbey Bros., and they will gin it for the 20th. They also will buy your Seed Cotton and pay you spot cash delivered at the Gin, or store of Ownbey Bros. Sept 26-tf

Pleasant Mound P. O., Laurens Co. S. C.—Messrs. Westmoreland Bros.—Gentlemen: You gave me a bottle of your Calisaya Tonic, which I administered to my son who was suffering at that time with chills and fever, and I must say for the benefit of the public, that it gave him entire satisfaction and relieved the case, and that the chills has not returned to him. I have examined your formula for making the Tonic, and believe it to be a superior preparation, and if used as directed think it an invaluable remedy in our Southern malaria districts.

Very respectfully,
M. C. Cox, M. D.

—We direct the attention of our readers to the new and changed advertisements which appear in this issue. Mr. Burbage, that very affable gentleman of Greenville, who with his spirit of enterprise has done so much for that city, comes to the front this week and shows to our people what he can do for them. Read too the advertisement of Robinson & Wyatt, and when you come to town call on these gentlemen. They are men of enterprise and with it they are very accommodating. Then cross the new crossing and see Mr. C. P. Runion. He graces our columns this week with a different 'ad.,' but will not treat you indifferently, and will receive you as cordially as ever.
